

NOVEMBER 5 1960.

ON THE BEACH AT 94

"This annual outing is indeed one of the high spots of my life," said 94-year-old Mr. Sylvester Chynne when thanking the organisers of the Wyke and Normandy Veterans' outing on Sunday.

The party travelled to Brighton through Cranleigh and Horsham and arrived there at about 12.30 p.m. After spending an enjoyable afternoon on the shore and in the town they returned at about 6 p.m.

17 DECEMBER 1960.

VETERANS' PARTY

Wyke and Normandy Veterans held their Christmas party on Saturday. Mr. S. Chynne, the oldest member, saying, "This annual party is indeed one of the high spots of my life," cut the Christmas cake baked by his wife for the occasion.

3 DECEMBER 1960.

WYKE & NORMANDY

SUNDAY OUTING

Wyke and Normandy Veterans went on a coach tour on Sunday. Their route followed the Thames for much of the way; they passed through Windsor and Henley, having lunch at High Wycombe. They returned through Slough, Staines and New Haw.

Willden Chronicle
23 June 1961.

POLHILL S.C. v. WYKE AND NORMANDY

In their annual all-day home match against Wyke and Normandy Veterans on Saturday, Colonel R. W. Polhill's XI were soundly beaten. Batting first, the Veterans finally declared at 285-6. Tomkin scored 81 and Harper 72.

The Polhill team were in trouble from the start and were dismissed for 125. Colonel Polhill, the club's president and founder, scored 51.